

DEPENDENT STUDENT SPECIAL CIRCUMSTANCES APPEAL

INSTRUCTIONS AND FORM

Academic Year 2023-2024

You may complete the Special Circumstances Appeal form if you are a dependent student whose parents' current financial situation is not accurately reflected by 2021 tax information. Your family's 2021 income is used to assess your financial need for the 2023-2024 school year, in accordance with federal laws and regulations. If your family's income is lower due to special circumstances, a financial aid administrator may be able to use your parent's estimated 2023 income to calculate financial need.

Documentation is essential. You and your family must submit all of the following:

Sections 1, 2, 3, and 4 of the Special Circumstances Appeal form (attached) completed correctly

A signed personal statement with a parental signature that explains their situation

Copies of your parents' 2021 & 2022 federal tax forms 1040 (including all schedules) and

W-2s Copies of your 2021 & 2022 federal tax forms 1040 (including all schedules) and W-2s

If you have not already done so, you must first apply for federal financial aid by completing the 2023-2024 Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) with 2021 tax information. After submitting the FAFSA, please provide information regarding your reduction in income by completing this form. Your appeal is complete only when you attach the documentation that validates your special circumstances. No action will be taken until all of the documentation appropriate to your parent's circumstance is submitted to the Office of Student Finance. You may submit your appeal online via the following link: <https://z.umn.edu/SpecialCircumstancesAppeal>

Appeal categories

Select the category that most closely describes your 2023-2024 special circumstance.

☐ Loss or reduction of employment, loss of military employment or benefits

Your parent(s) earned money in 2021 and has had an income reduction (loss of overtime will not be considered), or has lost employment in 2023 that has resulted in a reduction of income. We will need to understand your family's unemployment compensation benefits before you appeal. Please carefully read the instructions below.

YOU MUST PROVIDE ALL OF THE FOLLOWING:

- written verification from your parent's former employer(s) that indicates start and end dates of employment or reduction of hours. Former employers should document dates and amounts received for earnings, severance pay, vacation, and retirement payout. *You may provide us with a copy of your last pay stub received which should detail your year-to-date earnings, severance, etc.; AND
- unemployment eligibility forms that indicate dates and amount of unemployment benefits you are or will be receiving. We will need a copy of your initial eligibility determination letter from the unemployment compensation office; AND
- written statement from your parent's current or future employer(s) that indicates his/her expected gross earnings for the calendar year 2023. Year 2023 earnings must be documented with a letter from your parent's employer projecting earnings or with copies of your parent's two most recent pay stubs

☐ Separation, divorce, or death

You have already filed your annual Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) and since that time, your parents have separated or divorced, or a parent has died.

YOU MUST PROVIDE ONE OF THE FOLLOWING:

- legal separation papers or divorce decree; OR
- evidence of separate living accommodations if no legal separation exists; OR
- a death certificate, and documentation of year-to-date earnings for deceased parent.

☐ Tuition expenses for private elementary or secondary education

Your parent(s) pay elementary or secondary school tuition for a member of your family during the 2023-2024 academic year. Only expenses not covered or reimbursed by another agency/source will be considered. Only tuition incurred during the 2023-2024 academic year (after August 2023) will be considered.

YOU MUST PROVIDE ALL OF THE FOLLOWING:

- a copy of the school's enrollment contract that includes name(s) of your parents' child(ren) enrolled during the 2023-2024 academic year, tuition cost, and the amount of any scholarships or grants that subsidize the tuition.

☐ Nursing home expense / adult dependent care

Your parent(s) are paying a nursing home or an adult dependent care facility for services provided to a family member during the 2023–2024 academic year.

YOU MUST PROVIDE ALL OF THE FOLLOWING:

- documentation that your family member is being cared for by a nursing home, other facility, person, or agency.
- documentation of your payments; i.e. copies of canceled checks or payment receipts from person, facility or agency.

☐ Parent enrolled at least half time in a degree or certificate college program

YOU MUST PROVIDE ALL OF THE FOLLOWING:

- a paid tuition and fee statement that indicates the number of credits for which your parent is registered during the 2023–2024 academic year. If parent submits this for Fall 2023, please indicate parent's projected Spring 2024 enrollment plans in your personal statement.

☐ Loss of taxed/untaxed income or benefit

Your parent received unemployment compensation, or another taxed or untaxed income or benefit in 2021 and has completely lost that income or benefit for at least 8 weeks in the calendar year 2023. Eight (8) weeks without compensation must have passed prior to your submission of this appeal. The untaxed income or benefit must be from a public or private agency, a company, or from a person due to court order. (Do not include loss of educational veterans benefits.) Income and benefits may include: Social Security benefits, Supplemental Security Income (SSI), child support, untaxed retirement or disability benefits, welfare benefits, and Minnesota Family Investment Plan (MFIP).

YOU MUST PROVIDE ALL OF THE FOLLOWING:

- copies of all contracts, agency notices, or legal papers that indicate the date your parent's taxed/untaxed income or benefit was terminated, what amount of income came from that source, and how that income was used. If loss of child support, provide relevant pages of court decree documenting that it will end.

☐ Loss of one-time income

Your parent received one-time income in 2021 that will not occur in 2023 (e.g., rollover into a Roth IRA, moving expense allowance, back-year Social Security payments, or a divorce settlement). Special circumstance consideration will not be given if this one-time income is a result of an inheritance, job bonus or overtime compensation, gambling winnings, pension, capital gain, insurance settlements, or early distributions of retirement accounts.

YOU MUST PROVIDE ALL OF THE FOLLOWING:

- copies of all contracts, agency notices, or legal papers that indicate the date your parent's one-time income was terminated, what amount of income came from that source, and how that income was used.

☐ Unusual, unreimbursed medical care expenses

NOTE: Only expenses already paid directly by your parent(s) will be considered.

- Unexpected medical expenses—Your parent(s) have paid for unusual or unexpected medical expenses for a member of your household that are not reimbursed. These expenses are over and above typical health maintenance costs due to an unexpected, extraordinary emergency or incident. OSF assumes that you and your family members will have insurance coverage. Only those costs not covered by insurance or another agency may be considered. These expenses must be at least $3,000. Payment of insurance premiums, regular health maintenance, and routine expenses such as eyeglasses, birth control prescriptions, and elective or cosmetic procedures (e. g., orthodontic braces) are not considered unusual medical expenses and will not be considered for the special circumstances appeal.

YOU MUST PROVIDE ALL OF THE FOLLOWING:

- a concise summary of your total 2022 or 2023 medical expenses PAID; AND
- proof of paid expenses, e.g.: receipts from provider, credit card statements; copies of cancelled checks (explanation of benefits & invoices are not documentations of paid expenses)
- Medical expenses for certified disabled student—If you, the student, have medical expenses due to a chronic disability, these costs may be considered in your financial aid eligibility. Disability related costs are those expenses attributed to maintaining a chronic illness or condition that is not due to an unexpected incident or emergency. If you attend the University of Minnesota, Twin Cities, contact Disability Services, 180 McNamara Center, 200 Oak St. S.E., East Bank campus, for information on the availability of additional services and certification.

YOU MUST PROVIDE ALL OF THE FOLLOWING:

- a statement from health care provider and Disability Services that document the unusual condition; AND
- receipts or canceled checks that demonstrate payment for medical treatment of this condition.

SPECIAL CIRCUMSTANCES APPEAL

DEPENDENT STUDENTS—Read the Special Circumstances Appeal Instructions carefully before completing this form. SECTION 4. Certification

To the best of my knowledge, the information in this appeal is true. I understand that misrepresentation of facts in connection with this appeal, whenever discovered, may be sufficient cause, in and of itself, for cancellation and repayment of financial aid. I understand that my federal tax return will be used to verify the current financial aid application information and that I will be selected for institutional verification at the University of Minnesota, Twin Cities, in the next aid year. WARNING: If you use this form to establish eligibility for federal student financial aid and purposely give false or misleading information, you may be fined $20,000, sent to prison, or both.
